

Mares Head Sea Vu Dry - Full Face Snorkeling Mask

For snorkeling enthusiasts who don't like the traditional snorkels, breathing is easy with the Head Sea Vu Dry Full Face Snorkeling Mask. This ingenious mask covers your entire face and lets you breathe the way you do naturally, using both nose and mouth. Your breath, will circulate to the mask lens, eliminating fogging. The mask offers a wide field of view so you can take in everything below the surface. Your whole face stays dry thanks to comprehensive coverage, and the snorkel tube is integrated into the top of the Head Sea Vu Dry Full Face Snorkeling Mask, keeping water out. This innovative design means you'll stop struggling with breathing through a mouthpiece and start enjoying the mind-blowing underwater life instead.

Product Specifications

The Head Sea Vu Dry Full Face Snorkeling Mask has a dry top snorkel design. The snorkel's polycarbonate tube easily detaches from the mask for storage and safe transport. Internally the tube has a float that will close off the snorkel tube when submerged and upon returning to the surface will re-open for effortless breathing. The Snorkeling Mask has a polycarbonate lens, surgical grade silicone skirt with wide seal edge and elastic straps for a perfect seal on the face. Mask is available in S - M - L - XL sizes.
