

Amundson TR-27 12'6" - Tour & Race Board

The TR series has been Amundson's most popular board for several seasons. It is a great size for most adults, giving them enough extra waterline to feel the increased speed and glide with a new underwater shape in the nose area. The deep sharp V has been replaced by a fuller, more rounded cross-section which helps send more water under the board to initiate planing, as opposed to out to the sides or up in the air and onto the deck. The raised foredeck sheds water, and the slightly recessed cockpit keeps your center of gravity low, while making for a comfortable standing area. The boards also feature our large easy-carry handle and deck inserts for stowing a life-jacket or bag.
