

OCEANER - Sleeveless Pro Suit

Oceaner designers together with input and testing from world class competitive triathletes have pulled together a solid line of triathlon swimwear. Every triathlete knows that the key to success is endurance and speed. Oceaner contributes to this success with functional design and by using only the highest grade smooth skin neoprene in presenting the ultimate in durability, warmth and mobility.

Product Specifications

For the maximum in mobility the 3mm Sleeveless Pro Suit offers open shoulders with deep underarm cut design which maximizes stroke freedom. The leg is cropped at the lower calf to allow a larger opening for quick foot withdraw during time sensitive, post swim transitions.
